Partners searched

Countries	Any EU country, EEA countries and neighbourhood countries.
Preferred profile	It is absolutely essential for us, to apply for funds from the EU, as this project has a clear European dimension. This means that it must be a project that is built from the ground between the partners from different European countries and the works must be created by artists or cultural producers from different countries, in different countries, like the audience in different countries must be able to benefit from the project. Therefore we are looking for European partners like museums, art galleries, cultural heritage companies, video producers, artists, festival organizations, cinema d'essay and TV stations.
