Proposed Creative Europe project

Field(s)

Architecture, design, photography, landscape design, urban planning

Tbilisi architectural Biennale ("Searching for Identity"-working title) aims to initiate an interactive dialogue between architects, urban planners, designers, critics, researchers, historians and students. Tbilisi Biennale is about promoting architecture and built environment through exhibitions, collateral events, spatial projects, lecture-seminars, panel discussions, workshops, educational activities, forums, etc. Architectural Biennale will become the first precedential event in the region that aims to connect people to places and transform and share their knowledge and ideas. It's become the first precedential event in the region that aims to connect people to places and transform and share their knowledge and ideas. It's about understanding and imagining the future of our cities through the environment we choose to plan, design and construct around us, search an identity in this globalized world and connect tradition with innovation. It will become the hub for experienced, emerging and young architects and designers to exchange their experiences, knowledge and ideas. In addition, Biennale in the region will encourage better understanding of the role of architecture in achieving a healthy, sustainable and culturally rich built environment raising quality of life.

Description

Role within project

We are looking for the partners in frames of the project who will cooperate by providing expertize, knowledge, assistance in organaizing and planning the Biennale, provide speakers/lectureers for seminar/workshop seccions summits etc; beeing part of selection process and Jury.
